

“Community Health Assessment” for Children with Special Healthcare Needs

Continuing Education

Thursday, October 25, 2018. 8:00 - 4:00 pm

Crowne Plaza Sacramento, 5321 Date Ave, Sacramento

Learn knowledge and skills to conduct “community health assessments” of children with special healthcare needs by understanding the major issues and systems.

Featuring:

Robin Hansen, MD Professor of Pediatrics Director, UC Davis Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities	Autism & Developmental Disabilities
Family Voices of California Elaine Linn, Training Manager Debbie Sarmento, Manager Kausha King	Engaging Families to Improve Systems of Care for Children with Special Health Care Needs
Andy Krackov, MA Vice President, Data Strategy, Velir Studios www.centerforhealthjournalism.org/users/andy-krackov	Communicating Health Data to Spark Community Action
California Department of Public Health Sarah Leff, MPH. Children & Youth with Special Health Care Needs Lissa Pressfield, MHS. Child & Adolescent Health Megan Rivers, Maternal & Infant Health	Federal & State Requirements: Public Health Goals for CYSHCN
UCSF FHOP & Local Health Departments Jennifer Rienks, PhD, UCSF Family Health Outcomes Project Anand Chabra, MD, MPH San Mateo County Health System	Tools & Best-Practices in Community Health Assessment

Cost: $120 (incl breakfast & lunch). Online registration by October 24th

<http://www.calwic.org/events/mcah-action-meetings>

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand common issues for children w/ special healthcare needs
2. Summarize state-local health systems caring for CSHCN
3. Develop “Needs Assessment” skills, by analyzing CSHCN issues
4. Identify common questions to ask locally

Audience:

Local health departments: MCAH leadership team; CCS leadership, planners, epidemiologists, health officers, public health managers/directors

State health department: Maternal Child & Adolescent Health, California Children Services

Health Systems caring for Children w Special Healthcare Needs: Children's hospitals, pediatric health systems, community benefit programs